the Syracuse Convention.

Mr. Cleveland's Letter Construed as an Avowal of His Caudidacy.

The Syracuse Convention, to be held May 81, to elect delegates to the National Demoic Convention who will contest for admission at Chicago with the regular delegation ed at Albany Peb. 22, is not, it seems today, to be a gathering representative of the racy of the state, as its promoters claimed it would be.

It was at first proposed to lavite all Democrats to participate in the primaries which choose delegates to Syracuse, but idea has now been abandoned, the suggestion that many of the maries might be captured by Democrats the are in sympathy with the present State mittee, with some prospect even of enturing the Convention and turning it into a ratification meeting at which the action of

Its provis- years. ional State Committee, as a matter of precaution, has decided on a scheme for the enrollment of all Democrats in sympathy with the movement, and only such as are enrolled will be allowed to vote at the primaries, or have a voice in the Convention. This precaution will result, it is thought, in the organization of a convention which will be quite as harmontpus and machine-like in its action as

The Committee which is charged with the task of enrolling Democrats who sympathize with the movement in this city, consists of ex-Mayor William R. Grace, E. Ellery Anderson, Edward B. Whitney, Wallace Macfarlane, William F. Hull, Lawrence E. Sexton and Cyrus Sulzberger. They will at once proceed to enroll the anti-Tammany Democrats of New York, with a view to keeping the wicked braves out of the city primaries when they

An address to the Democratic electors of the city has been issued by the Cooper Union Committee of Pifty attacking the regular ocratic machine and asking the voters to enroll themselves with the new organization. MR. CLEVELAND'S LETTER.

Ex-President Grover Cleveland has been drawn out by a letter of Gen. Edward S. Bragg, of Wisconsin, calling on him to say Democratic party and the people that ory if the Chicago Convention shall tender wednesday of last week, the ex-fresheel, after prefacing his declarations with the statement that he had hoped to remain silent on the subject referred to, says that if he might only consider his personal desires and his individual ease and comfort his response would be prompily made and without the least reservation or difficulty.

This is taken to mean that if the matter were merely personal Mr. Cleveland would refuse to allow his name to go before the Convention.

"But," he adds, "if you are right in supposing that the subject is related to a duty I owe to the country and to my party, a condition exists which makes such private and personal considerations entirely irrelevant."

This latter declaration was said to-day by ex-secretary of the Treasury Fairchild and other of the ex-President's ardent admirers to be an acceptance pure and simple.

In his letter Mr. Cleveland also says that he cannot "regard a candidacy for the place as something to be won by personal strife and solive self-assertion," and, further on, "My conception-of the nature of the Presidential office and my conviction that the voters should be tree in the selection of their candidates, preclude the possibility of my leading and pushing a self-seeking canvass for the Presidential nomination, even if I had a desire to be again a candidate."

The ex-President acknowledged to-day that dential nomination, even if I had a desire to be again a candidate."

The ex-President acknowledged to-day that he had written the letter to Gen. Bragg, and that if the General had seen fit to publish it it was all right. "Whatever I said in that letter stands," said he.

The publication of this letter occasioned great joy at the headquarters of the antimachine Democracy at 52 William screet, from whence the Syracuse Convention movement is being directed.

Hobert Grier Monroe, Secretary of the Provisional State Committee, said it places Mr. Cleveland in the hadds of his party and the people, and C. C. Baldwin declared that he interpreted the letter as meaning that Mr. Cleveland would accept the nomination were it tendered him.

MR. BOWERS WILL NOT BERVE.

John M. Bowers, the only Tammeny Hall Democrat on the committee of the Bar Association appointed to consider the charges of improtessional conduct on the part of Judge Maynard, of the Court of Appeals, in connection with the contested election cases in which the Judge acted as counsel for the Democratic contestant and the State Canvassers, has declined to serve.

Mr. Bowers alleges that he has formed and expressed an opinion on the subject, and feels that that fact disqualifies him from serving as an impartial juror in the case.

Chairman Wheeler H. Peckham, who appointed the Committee, said to-day that he will probably fill the vacancy on the Committee is a day or two. MR. BOWERS WILL NOT SERVE.

NON-RESIDENTS AS OFFICE-HOLDERS.

Assembly man Martin, of the Eighteenth District, has introduced a bill in the Legislature to disquality non-residents of the State from holding municipal office in this city.

For many years some of the best offices in the city departments were held by persons who resided in New Jersey. At one time the Board of Albermen tried to secure their resmoval to make room for residents of the city. The agitation of the question caused many of the serseyites to secure town addresses, which they gave for official purposes while they still continued to reside outside the State.

There are, it is said, still several fat plums in the city departments which are held by Jerseymen.

Most of the ribbon manufacturers in the United States are in the East, the majority being in New York and its immediate vicin-ity, and the movement originated here. It is believed that by combining forces goods can be manufactured at a smaller cost, because here will be a saving in expense of advertising and for travelling salesmen and de signing.

Competition will be abolished by the Trust, and the manufacturers will have no difficulty in maintaining prices.

The Trust is being organized on the same lines as the other manufacturing and industrial combinations which have sprung up in such large numbers during the past few

Conductor Foliace, of the first train, was compelled to stop at a switch between Glenwood and Yonkers, and sent Brakeman Kelly back to signal the second treight. There is a sharp bend in the road at the place where the collision occurred. Brakeman Kelly either neglected his duty or did not have time to get back to a sate distance to warm the approaching train. KEENAN WILL APPEAL Disgusted with the Jury Which Gave Upington $80,664. John Keenan is thoroughly disgusted with the verdict for $80,004, which the jury in the Supreme Court yesterday found against him in favor of George P. Upington, who claims that he loaned Keenan the money ten years ago. Nearly half of this amount is for interest, the principal being $43,000. Judge Lawrence added to the verdict an extra allowance of $1,000.

Keenan says he "will not submit to this imposition," and his counsel, Col. George Bliss, is preparing an appeal on the ground that the verdict was contrary to the weight of cyclic process. AMONG THE WHEELMEN
